

NMAA Cadet Graduation Ceremony

President Karzai and Minister Wardak address the audience during Tuesday's graduation.

National Military Academy of Afghanistan Cadet Graduation Ceremony 22 March 2011

UNCLASSIFIED

A NMAA graduate pays tribute to Afghanistan after receiving his diploma and saber from President Karzai.

Major General Shir Mohammad Zazai presents NMAA's top graduate, Cadet Gul Rahman, with a new laptop.

- ❑ 299 cadets from the NMAA class of 1389 graduated before an audience of over 100 dignitaries, 100 coalition partners and 2000 ANP/ANA guest.
- ❑ President Karzai used the venue to announce his transition challenge. Present were the governors of the first provinces that will undergo the transition to Afghan control.
- ❑ The top 15 Cadets from NMAA graduating class 1389 received their diplomas and congratulations from Afghan President Karzai

UNCLASSIFIED